

Suggested Yr8 Reading List:

The books in this list have all been enjoyed by many students – read the synopses and the comments to decide which ones you would like to read:

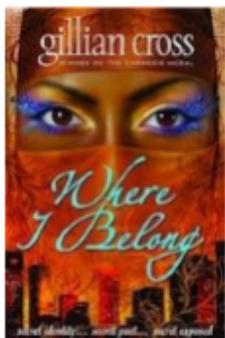

Zarita lives a life of privilege but this changes when the formidable and frightening Inquisition arrives in the area, bringing menacing shadows of suspicion with acts of cruel brutality, betrayal and revenge. Saulo is hauled off to be a slave at sea but has sworn vengeance on those who falsely accused his father.

"This book made history come alive – never again will I say history is boring"

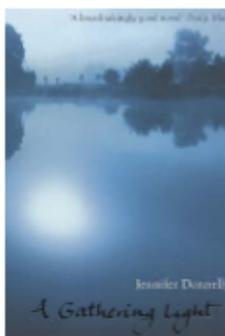

"Trouble twins" Dallas and Florida are orphans who long for a loving home. Tiller and Sairy are an eccentric older couple who live in the Ruby Holler and yearn for adventure. When they invite the twins to join them on their journeys, they first must all stay together in the Holler, and the magic of the place takes over.

"I thought I was badly behaved...!"

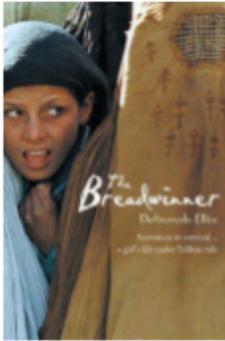

Khadija is sent to the UK to get an education & earn money for her family in Somalia. Abdi is the eldest son and now his father is dead too. Freya, the daughter of a famous fashion designer, is often left feeling neglected. A surprise takes them all on a journey that will change them forever.

"It made me realise how complicated (& exciting!) some people's lives are"

When Mattie is given letters by a guest at the hotel where she has a summer job, she thinks the guest is simply upset. But when the woman is found drowned next day, Mattie must decide whether she will read them, or burn them as requested. A touching, funny and surprising novel set in 1906 and based on a true story.

"It wasn't until the very end of this book that I realised exactly how much I loved it."

Parvana and her family live in one room of a bombed-out apartment building in Kabul, Afghanistan. One day her father is arrested for the crime of having a foreign education and the family is left without someone to earn money and shop for food. There is only one solution. Forbidden by the Taliban government to earn money as a girl, Parvana must transform herself into a boy and become the breadwinner.

"Read this, it's true – I come from Afghanistan..."

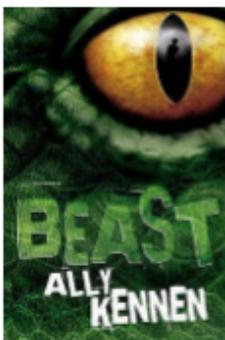

Nobody Owens, known to his friends as Bod, is a normal boy. He would be completely normal if he didn't live in a graveyard, being raised and educated by ghosts. There are dangers and adventures for Bod in the graveyard. But it is in the land of the living that real danger lurks for it is there that the man Jack lives and he has already killed Bod's family.

"This book should have won more awards!"

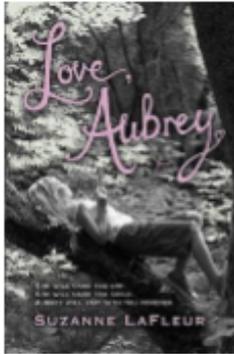

Ellen never expected her new Austrian school to be even more unusual than her life in England. A world occupied by wild children, even wilder teachers, experimental dancers and a tortoise on wheels, Ellen is instantly attracted to the part-time gardener/fencing teacher. Hitler's Reich looms and only when she discovers Marek's true identity and his mission does Ellen realize the depth of her feelings for him.

"a really different love story..."

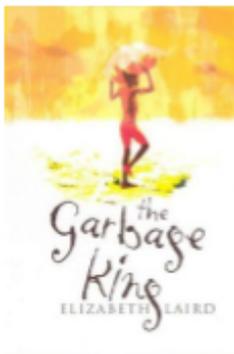

Stephen is in foster care because his mom is crazy and his dad is an ex-con vagabond. He's always in trouble or on his way to trouble. But none of these problems compare to the problem of The Beast - Stephen's biggest secret -- and also his biggest challenge. And that's when it's in a cage. When the Beast escapes, the stakes get even higher.

"Gulped it down in one sitting, it's genuinely frightening!"

A beautifully written and deeply moving teen novel with characters to cherish and a story full of tragedy and loss. Aubrey has suffered an unbelievable loss, and goes to live with her grandmother in Vermont in order to heal. There she makes new friends, learns to cope with what has happened, and begins to figure out how to move on and she has to make one of the biggest decisions of her life.

“heartbreaking and funny and true to life”

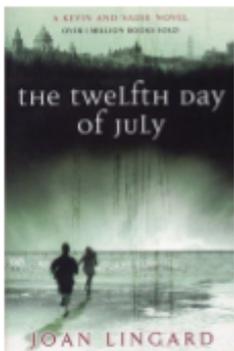

Mamo and Dani are both left homeless and on the streets. They are taken into a gang led by a tough but likable boy, Million. This spellbinding story deals with the deprivations, uncertainties, and the stark terror experienced today by too many Third World children. Although alarming in its authenticity, this is also an inspiring tale of courage and generosity in a world where danger and anxiety are the norm.

“Brilliant”

After nuclear war devastates the earth, a few people struggle for survival in a new world where children are born with strange mutations. Sarah and her family are cooped up in the tightly-sealed kitchen, dreading the inevitable radioactive fall-out and the subsequent slow, torturous death, which is preferable to surviving in a grey, dead world, choked by dust. But then, from out of the dust and the ruins, comes new life, a new future - a whole brave new world.

“One of the very few books that I will read again.”

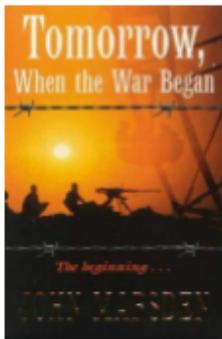

Tommy and Sadie Jackson are already looking forward to the 12th day of July which is a Protestant celebration day. Meanwhile, Catholic Kevin McCoy is out causing trouble in the Protestant part of town. What will happen when Sadie and Kevin meet? Can they become friends when everyone else in Northern Ireland is so full of hatred against the other religion?

“Thought provoking”

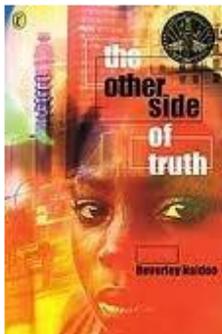

It is the summer of 1943 and war continues to rage. For Rose and Diana, it's a time of independence and self-discovery as they find first loves. But when Rose unearths a love story from another war, she realises that wartime intensifies emotions, and maybe she isn't as in love as she first thought she was. Rose is about to discover a secret that will change everything.

"[this book] always cheers me up when I'm feeling sad"

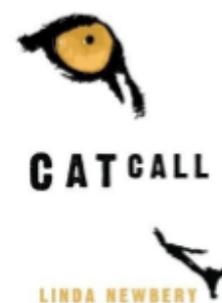

When Ellie and her friends return from a camping trip in the Australian bush, they find things hideously wrong--their families are gone. Gradually they begin to comprehend that their country has been invaded and everyone in their town has been taken prisoner. As the reality of the situation hits them, they must make a decision--run and hide, give themselves up and be with their families, or fight back.

"an exciting and different spin on a survival story"

'A tragedy - and a terrible loss for Sade and her younger brother, Femi, children of an outspoken Nigerian journalist. Now terror is all around them and they must flee their country. At once. And alone. Plans for their journey have to be hastily arranged. Everything must be done in secret. But once Sade and Femi reach England, they will be safe - won't they?'

"it's good to step into someone else's shoes"

Josh's family is used to changes—but now there are more. Josh has always had an affinity with animals, but it's his brother Jamie who falls under the all-pervading wild cat spell. "Leo" has taken over Jamie's life. Soon the family can't cope with his frightening, unpredictable behaviour. Josh understands Jamie's moods, but can he break through his mask to save them all?

"I liked how it came together at the end"

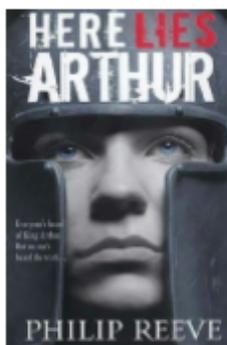

Strap yourself in for the thrill ride you'll want to take again and again! From Death Valley, California, to the bowels of the New York City subway system, you're about to take off on a heart-stopping adventure that will blow you away... Your faithful companions Max, Fang, Iggy, Nudge, the Gasman and Angel. Six kids who are pretty normal in most ways - except being 98% human, 2% bird.

"Don't put this book down - your life could depend on it."

Storms whistling through the sails, evil pirates pacing the floorboards, and of course, a haunted ship of ghostly beings... All this and more is waiting to give you goose bumps in an atmospheric and thrilling collection of spooky seafaring tales told by an old sailor begging for shelter.

"Such twisted tales, scary, grisly, and ghostly but perfect!"

Gwyna is just a small girl, when she is bound in service to Myrddin the bard - a traveller and spinner of tales. But Myrddin transforms her - into a lady goddess, a boy warrior and a spy. Without Gwyna, Myrddin will not be able to work the most glorious transformation of all - and turn the leader of a ragged band into King Arthur, the greatest hero of all time.

"A new and exciting retelling of the King Arthur story"

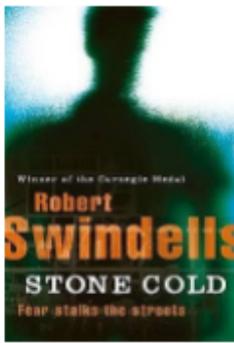

The days between Christmas and New Year's Eve are dead days, when spirits roam and magic shifts restlessly just beneath the surface of our lives. A magician called Valerian must save his own life within those few days or pay the price for the pact he made with evil so many years ago. But alchemy and sorcery are no match against the demonic power pursuing him...

"Beautifully paced and sometimes blood-soaked. . . . A very tangible sense of evil."

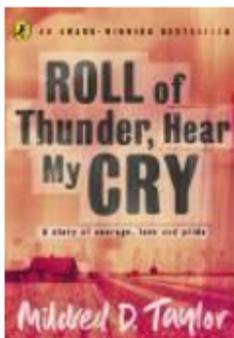

Marianne is in bed after a serious illness and to pass time she takes up drawing with a pencil she finds in a workbasket. To her surprise she dreams about her drawings and they come to life in an extra-ordinary way. Jumping between the real world and that of her dreams Marianne slowly becomes conscious that the world she is creating is making affecting the waking world and another sick child called Mark.

"a MUST read if you like dark fantasy!"

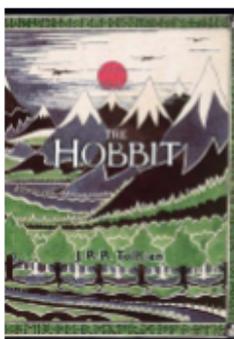

Homeless, frightened and alone because of a bad situation at home, Link finds himself down-and-out in London. He only survives because he's befriended by streetwise Ginger. When Ginger disappears, Link is in despair. Other kids are vanishing now - and the killer is stalking his next victim. Will it be Link? And who is Shelter?

"It tells two stories: on the one side we have homeless teenager, Link; on the other we have Shelter."

The story of Cassie Logan and her family, an African American family fighting to stay together, preserve their history and be strong in the face of brutal racist attacks, illness, poverty, and betrayal in the Deep Jim Crow South of the 1930s.

"I would have cried at the end, but I was at school and that would have been so embarrassing!"

The enchanting prelude to The Lord of the Rings, The Hobbit is the story of Bilbo Baggins, a quiet and contented hobbit whose life is turned upside down when he joins the wizard Gandalf and thirteen dwarves on their quest to reclaim stolen treasure. It is a journey fraught with danger and in the end it is Bilbo Baggins alone who must face the guardian of this treasure, the most dreaded dragon in all Middle-earth.

"One of the best children's stories of the 20th century"